Red Pucksters Meet Carabins at Verdun Tomorrow Evening

Fisher May Take Regular Forward Duty

By "RED" WARD

With their chances of catching the pace-setting Toronto Varsity Blues now only a remote possibility, the McGill Redmen meet the University of Montreal Carabins at Verdun Auditorium tomorrow night in what may be termed an anti-climatic encounter. However, the Redmen still retain a mathematical chance of overhauling the Blues. Four points separate the two teams with each club having three more games on its schedule.

In previous meetings with the erratic Carabins, the locals have been able to gain a 4-3 win while dropping one by the same score.

SAME LINE-UP

Dave Campbell will ice the same line-up which took such a drubbing from the Varsity Blues last Friday night, with the possible exception

A & S Valentine Dance in Union Building Tonite

Tonight's the night! The Union Ballroom will be reverberating with the pitter-patter of hundreds of tiny, happy feet as McGill gathers to pay her respects to good old St. Valentine. Starting at 9.30 p.m. Paul Beauregard will supply the music for the annual Arts and Science Valentine's Hop with genial Len Harbour, the doing the honours as Master of Society's second Vice-President, Ceremonies.

Mr. Harbour announces that the complete proceeds of the event will be turned over to the International Students' Service, the campus division of the Canadian Appeal for Children as the Society's contribution to the coming McGill campaign.

It is expected that a large number of couples will attend the dance after taking in this evening's performance of the Red and White Review but undergraduates from all over the campus will be very welcome with their current Valentines. Tickets will be on sale in the Union today and at the door at $1.25 per couple. There will be door prizes and a number of interesting innovations are planned by the Society.

Dawson Dance In Gym Tonite; Etienne Plays

Above is MIKE FISCHER, bruising McGill rearward who may be switched to the forward line against U. of M. tomorrow if Chippendale's injury keeps him out.

of Warren Chippendale who injured his shoulder in practice Wednesday eve. Should Chippendale's injury keep him out of action for the Carabin tilt, then Mike Fischer will take over the regular patrol on the line with Jimmy Atkinson and Phil Henry. This leaves Gordie Gosselin, Jack Hennessy and Doug Heron for the blue-line duty in front of Jack Gelineau. On the forward line, the Millar-Beigler-Hackett and Hale-Pittfield-Sinclair trios remain intact. Tomorrow may be the night for Captain Cy Beigler to return to his early-season form. You will remember that in the first two games of the campaign Cy remanded home four markers, but since then he has found the range for only two more.

CARABINS NEED WIN
At the present time the Carabins are tied with the Queen's Gaels for third place and the boys are out to break this deadlock by virtue of a win over the Reds.

Denis LaHaie is the U. of M. twine-tender with Denault and Crepeau heading the rearward division in front of him. Pinard, Emblem and Dion form one forward line with Lefebvre, Lalonde and Lazure combining on another trio. Andre Charest, the Carabins' speedy winger, who is one of the most dangerous forwards in the league, should provide the Reds with most of the trouble up front.

CHAREST'S PUNCH
Charest has not been available for games out of town this season, but his presence at home gives the U. of M. squad a powerful scoring punch.

Starting time at the Auditorium on Saturday is 8.30. In Kingston tonight, the Toronto Blues clash with Gene Chouinard's Golden Gaels in another league encounter. The Varsity pucksters can assure themselves of at least a first place tie by defeating the Queen's six. They should do this with the utmost ease.

$10 DOLLARS REWARD

For the return of a black leather wallet lost in the Undergrad Room on Tuesday. Finder may keep contents but please return wallet to the Union Tuck Shop. Reward is waiting there.

SMOKE THAT PEACE PIPE: Looking somewhat like a man of distinction is Eugene Jousse, Technical Director of the Red and White Review of 1948 as he lights his pipe. He claims that it holds half a pack of tobacco at a time. Tickets for the Review are still available, with a good selection of seats left for the Saturday afternoon matinee at $1.00 and $1.25 and a few seats left for the other performances. All tickets are reserved and are on sale in the lobby of the McGill Union. (Daily Photo—Peake-Martlet.)

Reds Face Western, Toronto in Games Tonight, Saturday

By BOB BORNSTEIN

McGill's Red Raiders are off on their yearly "suicide trip." This journey will take them to London and Toronto, Ontario, where they are slated to meet the Western and Varsity hoop squads in that order. Tonight's Mustang clash is expected to give the Redmen their biggest headache, although the Toronto eagles are no slouches either and should make things tough for the Ryanites Saturday night.

At the present time the Reds are tied for second place with the Blues. Each five has won and lost in two games. The Mustangs are well in front with four straight wins while Queen's holds down the cellar with four consecutive losses.

DAVIDON AND COMPANY

Howie Ryan will depend on his eight regulars to uphold the honour of the Red and White over the week-end. This means that George Davidson, Sammy Roth and Bobby Duford will start on the forward line with Bud Fraser and Don Atkin at the guard positions. Chuck Goldbloom, Myer Bloom and Hal Wilson will also see considerable action during the trip.

The Redmen will meet up with a mighty fine Western five at Lbndon tonight. Always a great quintet, the Metrasmen are almost invincible on their home floor. Last year they overwhelmed McGill 90-29 at London, but won by only 41-36 here in Montreal.

IMPRESSIVE SCORES

So far this season, the Mustangs have topped Queen's twice, by scores of 77-24 and 55-25. They took Toronto 68-44 on the Western court and beat McGill here 58-42. Prospects are not too bright for the Redmen in the coming Western tilt.

Spearheading the attack for the Londoners are Bob Phibbs and Dick Farley, who along with 6'5" centre George Wearing form the top forward trio. Fabe Curry, George Arnott, Bill Wardle, Don Scott and Gordie Davidson are other classy hoopers on the Mustang squad.

In Toronto the locals will have another tough nut to crack, although one can hardly compare Varsity to the Western five. In their two outings thus far, the Blues have beaten Queen's 59-46 and lost to the Metrasmen 68-44.

TORONTO'S ZEATON

Their outstanding performer is Wally Zeaton who has dropped in 26 points in the two games. He and Bruce Tetmar play at guard and form an effective combination. Jack McManus, Andy Andrews, Jack

Swan, and Barry Lowes are other Blues who will be out to make things tough for the Redmen.

This week-end may well "make or break" the McGill quintet. A split would be satisfactory, while a double defeat would be disastrous. On the basis of past performances, it is doubtful if the locals can pull a win out of the two encounters.

ISS Relief Work

World Wide Help Campaign Nearing

McGill Students, together with other Canadian University Students, will launch an intensive campaign, towards the end of this month, to help fellow students in war-ravaged Europe and Asia through the International Student Service. McGill has set as its goal ten thousand of the hundred thousand dollar national objective.

The official starting date of the ten-day campaign is February 23, but already a considerable amount has been collected by individual action on the part of Campus Clubs and other organizations. An example of the interest that has been taken in this drive is the fact that practically every group on the Campus has undertaken some sort of venture to raise money for the less fortunate students across the seas.

ONE DOLLAR PER

Apart from this, individuals will be asked to contribute at least one dollar each. It is felt by the committee in charge that this is the least that any person, fortunate enough to be a student in this prosperous country, should give, so that others might have just the bare necessities of life.

Among the measures taken so far by Campus Clubs was the Model Parliament where a twenty-five cent "tax" was levied on those attending this affair. A collection is also being made at each performance of the currently-running Red and White Review. This alone is expected to net a large amount for the International Student Service.

U. of B.C. Votes Jap Franchise

Parliamentary Body
Wants Equality
For Japanese

(By Canadian University Press.)

At a recent meeting of the Parliamentary Forum at the University of British Columbia, the students voted almost one hundred per cent in favour of granting full citizenship rights to Japanese Canadians.

Prime Minister, Phyllis Webb told the house that "not a single Japanese has ever been charged with treasonous action." Furthermore, she pointed out, the Japanese have been granted the franchise in every province except B.C.

"In B.C. the Japanese have been discriminated against, even persecuted, yet they have remained loyal to Canada," she declared.

To the accompaniment of hoots and jeers, Marshall Bray, Leader of the Opposition declared that "the time had come for Japanese, to be given the vote as they regard themselves first as Japanese, and second as Canadian."

"Before the war we thought the Japanese were a fine and cultured race. Look what came of it. I submit that the Canadian Japanese are pulling the wool over our eyes just as did their countrymen in Japan. As a case in point we have the Canadian prisoners of war," he continued.

At this point the house laughed uproariously and urged Bray to "name some more."

Government speaker Cliff Greer expressed the opinion that most of the Japanese-Canadians have "already assimilated themselves into the cultural life of Canada."

"When the Japanese were here you found them at every cultural performance," he said. "There is no reason why we cannot, as has been done in Hawaii, assimilate them racially by inter-marriage."

Ron Grant, second opposition speaker, cited the case of a letter to a downtown newspaper signed in 1937 by a number of local Japanese. In the letter they had affirmed their loyalty to the Japanese Imperial family and declared in an "insulting cartoon in which the paper had dared to show a Japanese prince shaking hands with common Vancouver people."

In reply, Cliff Greer pointed out that it had been conclusively (Continued on Page 4)

Radio Workshop Recording

"MERIDIAN 7-1212" will be recorded at CKAC tomorrow afternoon (Saturday). Members of the cast should be in Studio "C" (third floor) at 2 p.m. SHARP so that the recording may go off on schedule.

Judges Nominate 5 Campus Cuties For Festive Queen Post

Finalists Set For Elections; Selection Close

The long awaited decision has been handed down from authoritative persons. The news is out! The suspense is broken! The names of the five girls who will run in the finals for the position of Carnival Queen have been released. The girls, one of whom will be queen and the rest of whom will be her attendants, are Miss Helen Harris, Miss Allie Ross, Miss Sue Bishop, Miss Martha McCabe and Miss Ro-Ann Ballantyne.

Last Wednesday afternoon, at Mrs. Purvis' residence, twenty anxious candidates for the coveted campus position of Queen of McGill's first Winter Carnival were assembled at a tea. The purpose of this tea was to choose the five finalists for whom the student body will cast their votes.

This extremely difficult task was entrusted to Dean Gillson of Arts and Science, Professor Bland of the School of Agriculture, Professor Phelps of the English Department and Mrs. Gorham, representative from a local model agency. Every one of the girls is a charming example of feminine pulchritude and the judges found it far from easy to choose five from the group of twenty campus lovelies.

ELIMINATION WAS CLOSE

Deciding which girls were to be given this honour was a feat of diplomacy and judgment. Personal appearance, poise, graciousness and accomplishments were all taken into consideration. The judges divided the candidates into five groups and in marking their final decision chose one from each group. The girls who were not chosen should not feel that there is any reflection on their charm and appeal. It was a very close contest and the judges found it almost impossible to select the lucky five.

Pictures of the five winners will appear in the Daily next week, so that all students will have a chance to decide for themselves which of these attractive co-eds they would like to see crowned Queen of the Carnival. Voting will take place in a campus-wide election to be held on Tuesday, February 17.

RESULT SECRET

The result of this election will not be announced until the Queen is crowned by His Worship Camille Houde on Friday night of the Carnival. At this time she will take her place on the throne which has been prepared for her, and will preside over all the following events of the Carnival.

All twenty candidates have been invited to take part in the contest which is now in progress to select the 25 best models on the campus. Attractive prizes are offered, and the winners will take part in a fashion show to be held in aid of the I.S.S. on February 27.

UNB Memorial Centre Planned

By Canadian University Press
Dr. A. F. VanWart, chairman of the central committee of the University of New Brunswick war memorial campaign, recently reported on the progress of the campaign in preparation for its official opening on March 1.

Dr. VanWart, speaking at a meeting of the Alumni Association of the University, reminded the gathering that they had pledged themselves to raise $250,000 to convert the U.N.B. Memorial Hall into a students' centre, which will serve as a memorial for former students and grads who gave their lives in the two Great Wars. Among the many features of the proposed building will be common rooms, games room, music room, dining room, and a memorial chapel or shrine.

University in Receipt of $9,000 Gift

McGill University has received a donation of $9,000 for research in endocrinology and brain chemistry. It was announced yesterday following a meeting of the board of governors.

Gifts, grants and bequests totaling nearly $24,000 were acknowledged. Walter M. Stewart donated $2,000 to the Macdonald College Library, and Mrs. Stewart contributed $1,000 to the Macdonald College Women's Athletic Association Fund.

The John and Mary R. Markle Foundation gave $3,000 and the first annual instalment of a grant of $6,000 in support of research investigations being undertaken by Dr. Bram Rose, Dr. J. E. Ayre received a $1,750 grant for research from the Ortho Research Foundation, and Dr. D. L. Thomson received a similar grant of $1,000 from Charles E. Frost and Co.

The Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. gave $1,200 to maintain the Comino Fellowship, and the Allied Chemical and Dye Corporation donated $1,200 for the renewal of a Fellowship in Chemistry. The Edward Archibald Experimental Surgery Fund received an anonymous donation of $1,000.

Other donations included $512 from the estate of Mrs. Robert Reid, $100 from the estate of David S. Friedman; an anonymous donation of $713 for the Neurological Institute; $200 from Jenkins Bros. Ltd.; Caplan Bros. and the J. W. Dafeo Foundation each donated $100. The Chemical Institute of Canada gave $50 and $100 was received from the estate of Velina P. Molson. Hoffman-LaRoche donated $500 to the Obstetrical and Gynaecological Research Fund.

These are the only ways in which one can receive his train ride to Ski Day at Ste. Marguerite. It is hoped that as many students as possible will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Bomber Has Selected Campus For Target

The Players' Club announced that a plane has been procured for the purpose of publicizing their forthcoming production, "Through the Pale Door," to be produced early in March.

At a future date, as yet undecided, the plane will fly over the campus dropping a number of leaflets, some of which will bear identifying marks in the upper right-hand corner. The marked leaflets may later be redeemed at the Players' Club Room for two complimentary tickets.

U of T Sponsors Week for ISS

(By Canadian University Press)

The I.S.S. of the University of Toronto is sponsoring a free entertainment week for all students who contribute to the I.S.S. campaign. One dollar will admit any Varsity student to any I.S.S.-sponsored functions taking place this week. The events include movies, four tea dances, an All-Varsity Revue, skating party, two evening dances, and an all-afternoon and evening fair.

Another feature expected to aid the I.S.S. is the current Photographic and Modelling Contest and the Fashion Show which will follow it. This contest is open to all McGill Co-eds and is expected to draw a large crowd. Women students who feel that they are good "model material" will submit photographs of themselves. These will then be judged and the best twenty-five girls will then model clothes at the subsequent Fashion Show. All proceeds, of course, go to I.S.S.

Campaign Chairman Alex Morris has declared that the ten thousand dollar McGill objective is but a minimum mark and that he expects that when the campaign finally closes on March 3, McGill Students will have exceeded this figure by a wide margin. He is confident of this because of the wide support already given to the drive and also because of the record of McGill's student body in drives of this nature in the past.

Carnival Tickets

"Buy your blanket tickets soon so as to turn them in for train tickets Monday and Tuesday, February 16, and 17th," urges John Dobson, chairman of the McGill Winter Carnival Ticket Committee.

Students must realize that these are absolutely the only days on which train tickets can be secured. The procedure is for the blanket ticket holder to bring his or her ticket and Students' Athletic Coupon Book (as proof that he is a McGill Student) to the McGill Union on these days between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. The stub in the upper left hand corner of the blanket ticket will be removed, together with one from the athletic book, and the ticket holder will receive his train ticket.

Holders of the special $4 tickets, issued before the holiday was granted, may receive their train tickets on presenting one dollar together with their Athletic Tickets book. The sale of these special tickets is definitely to be discontinued this Saturday.

Single tickets may be purchased on Monday and Tuesday at a cost of $1.70. Thus, it is evident that the most economical course is to purchase one's blanket ticket before Tuesday at 4.00 p.m.

These are the only ways in which one can receive his train ride to Ski Day at Ste. Marguerite. It is hoped that as many students as possible will avail themselves of this opportunity.

McGill Skiers Face Stiff Opposition From Dartmouth

When the chips are down at the McGill Winter Carnival, the skiing Redmen will find some of their toughest opposition in their old rivals from Dartmouth college. With Walt Prager away with the American Olympic team, Ja Densmore has taken over coaching duties at the Hanover college and is reputed to have assembled one of the best balanced outfits in recent years.
CAPTAIN McLANE
Captain of this year's varsity squad is letterman Malcolm McLane, four event skier and newly chosen Rhodes scholar. McGill has been bothered by the McLane clan for longer than they care to remember as brother Charlie captained the Dartmouth in 40 and 41. Wilbur Bull is the top jumper on the Big Green squad and last year won both the jumping and combined at the Dartmouth Carnival. He will be competing four events again this season.
Chris Bugge skied with the underground in Norway during the war, and added his talents to the Dartmouth squad last year. Jumping and cross-country are his specialties, but he may be called on for slalom and downhill as well. Another Norwegian, Tor Arneburg from Oslo is a promising four event man in his first season for Dartmouth. He is attending college as an exchange student.
EX-VARSITY MAN
Henry Lumbard skied slalom and downhill for the Varsity last year and previous to that skied with the 7th Division ski team.
Tom Tomasi is another downhill slalom specialist in his second season with Dartmouth.
Coach Densmore will be relying on a compact team of six skiers instead of the eight allowed by the intercollegiate rules. This means that most of his men will compete in all events. Dartmouth has always had singular success with small teams and for many years dominated intercollegiate skiing in New England.
In 1946, McGill beat Dartmouth in their home ground for the first time in 22 years.

Indoor Track Held at Forum On March 8th

Entries for the Canadian Legion Indoor Track meet to be held at the Forum on Monday, March 8, close February 21. All men who wish to compete in this meet see Coach Van Wagner as soon as possible. The events are 50, 500, 1,000 yards, one and two miles, 50 yds. high hurdles, high jump and mile relay complete the schedule.
Practice hours are 12 to 2:00 p.m., Tuesdays to Fridays and night 3 to 4 p.m.
HAMILTON MEET
A team of seven or eight runners will also be selected to compete at Hamilton on Saturday, March 13. Here McGill will enter the 800 and Mile relays, and also the 60, 300, 600, and 1,000 yards.
WIGLE TROPHY
The feature event will be the one mile Canadian Intercollegiate relay for the Lt.-Col. Fred E. Wigle trophy. This beautiful trophy was first won by McGill two years ago but is now in the possession of Toronto. Previously Western have not entered this event and, unless they do so this year, McGill should have an excellent chance of regaining the Fred Wigle Trophy.

NOTICE
SPEED SKATING
Practices for Speed Skaters are held daily at the Molson Stadium on our 440 yard Track. Men can train on the afternoon from 2:00 to 6:00 and every night from 7:00 to 9:00. Will add those who gave their names turn out Saturday afternoon or Monday night. Trials will be held on Tuesday night at 7:30. Will be the following men report to Gilles Gagnon at CA-4253 or at Athletics Office before Monday night.
Pelton Earl, Mike Sharrat, Glen Magee, Jim Morrison, Paul McDonald, Gordon Lindsay, Gerry Boissonneault, Murray Hayes, Michel Crush, Gordy Henderson, R. Grey, M. Hudler, L. Dagget.

Inter Skiers To Compete In Ottawa Meets

The McGill Intermediate ski team leaves for Ottawa tonight where they will compete in a two-day meet with Carleton College, Ottawa College, St. Pats, Queens and Loyola. Camp Fortune on the Gatineau river will be the scene of the races with the cross country scheduled for Saturday and the downhill and slalom on Sunday.
BRUNEAU CAPTAIN
Captain of this year's team is slalom stylist Art Bruneau while Ted Kehoe, John Turner Bone, Andy Hugessen, Owen Owens, and Bob Munroe comprise the six man team. With the exception of Bruneau, this is exactly the same squad that won the CIAU ski championship at St. Sauveur last year, and are heavily favoured to sweep the Ottawa meet.

Skiers Compete In Races Today At Dartmouth

Hanover, N.H., Feb. 12.—(Special to The Daily)—The McGill skiers arrived here last night and spent today practicing on the Moose Mountain downhill trail and the big jump in preparation for the Dartmouth Carnival races starting Friday.
ONLY 2 RED HOLDOVERS
The Montrealers' eight-man team contains only two holdovers from last year's squad in the persons of Karre Olsen and Ted Pope, both jumpers. For the slalom and downhill events on Friday the Redmen have entered Bruce Flemming, Jack Griffin, Ted Graves and Don Smith. Flemming recently won the downhill championships of the Laurentians, and Jack Griffin, a freshman, was selected as an alternate for the Canadian Olympic ski team. Don Stanforth, last year's captain, accompanied the team as acting manager, but will not race due to an injury.
DRAPER, HOUSEMAN JUMPING
In the jump and cross-country events on Saturday, Olsen, Pope, John Draper and John Houseman have been entered for the Redmen. These last two, both freshmen at

Hockey Braves Meet Queens At Kingston on Saturday

Coach Ross Hutchins' Braves are in the midst of a struggle for the Intermediate CIAU championship. In their five games to date the Braves have lost only once, that to St. Pats the team with whom they are currently battling it out for. With such stalwarts Tommy Bridle, Jo-Jo Smythe and Sandy Edmondson on defence, and flashy Don Bussiere, Charlie Lafontaine, and hard hitting Andy Carreau up front, not to mention some air tight goaling by Norm Morse, it is no wonder that the Braves bid fair to be the only McGill team to cop a championship this year.
TOUGH STRETCH
There are only three games left on the schedule. Of these two are away, at Queens and Ottawa U., and the other is a home stand against St. Pats in the game that will go a long way to deciding the

Moyse Boys Beat Stallions 3-1 at Dawson

Moyse Boys outplayed, outshot and outran the Stallions to a 3 to 1 victory. The game was a hard, rough, close-checking affair with the Moyse Boys holding the edge as far as fancy stick-handling was concerned. This makes it two straight for the Moyse Boys in the final putting the "Bantam Crown" within reach. The Stallions will have to pull up their socks if they want a bid for the championship. The next, and possibly the last, game will be played on Monday evening at 6:30 P.M.

LET'S REPEAT '46
The Redmen won the first post-war Dartmouth Carnival in 1946 and came third in last year's races. Other colleges competing in the skiing program at the carnival include Middlebury, U. of New Hampshire, Maine, St. Lawrence, Williams, Harvard, Vermont and Amherst.
Carnival theme for this year is "Spirit of the North."

There's nothing much Egbert can do about adding inches to his height. But there's a great deal he can do about increasing his self-confidence off the basketball floor. For there's nothing makes you feel as if you'd just scored a basket than a good financial reserve. And the simplest way to build that reserve is by starting a B of M savings account and making it work.

Chessmen Club Oppose Varsity Team Saturday

The traditional Inter-University Chess Match between McGill and Varsity is to be revived this Saturday in a six-board match. This contest will take place in the McGill Union. McGill has accepted the challenge offered by Varsity, and although the game is, to common belief, proverbially slow, the event promises to be interesting and exciting.

Each player will play two games the top man of McGill matched against Varsity's best. The outcome of this tourney is highly unpredictable for the match has not been played since before the War. Further, inevitably, it is difficult to estimate the strength of the McGill team. The University of Toronto, however, is reputed to have one of the best Chess Teams of the Canadian Universities.

The McGill club has to more, or less, start from scratch for they have not presented a competitive team since 1943. It is hoped, however, that the relics of chessmen that lie about the reading room of the Union are no evidence of the condition of the McGill team.

Among the more stalwart of the strategists on the McGill team is Gordon Fox. He has not lost a single game, in the present McGill tournament, and has only several more to play. The rest of the team, in order they are to play, consists of Joy Weiniger, Phillips Samuel, Solomon Schwartz, Lee Lawry, and Manuel Litwin with Eric Deakin as a reserve.

Osgoode Hall Contest Today In Union at 1

McGill Debaters John Oliver and Kenneth Hague will again engage a University of Toronto debating team when the locals play host to Osgoode Hall today at 1 p.m. in the McGill Union. The topic is: "Resolved that Socialism leads inevitably to Totalitarianism."

Oliver and Hague successfully combined to defeat a mixed team from University of Toronto on February 4th, upholding the same resolution at that time. Since the McGill team have had this previous experience with the topic, strong and well thought out arguments should be forthcoming.

Conversely, Osgoode, one of Canada's leading Law Schools, can be expected to produce top-flight opposition.

It is intended to have the debate judged by members from the Montreal Debating League.

Everyone is welcome and it is expected that the debate will be concluded before 2 p.m.

URGENT

The Royal Victoria Hospital is in desperate need of all types of fresh blood. This need is so great that in the past few weeks a number of emergency operations have been postponed because of the necessary transfusions.

Everyone who can possibly do so has been asked to go up to the hospital and donate a pint of blood. Help save a life!

Dr. C. C. Birchard, chairman of the Medical Board of the Montreal General Hospital; and Dr. John A. MacMillan, chairman of the Medical Board of the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Coeds' Activities Include Model Contest, Nominations, Pins Sale

There is still time to enter the modelling contest. The 25 winners of this competition, open to all coeds, will model clothes at the fashion show in aid of the ISS, on February 27. Contestants will be judged on the basis of the entry forms and pictures they turn in, and the Rapid Grip and Balten Company, sponsoring the contest, will take pictures for those who do not have a snapshot or a photograph.

Various clothing firms will give presents to the winners, who will have a chance to model clothes for photographers and manufacturers. Models are in short supply in Montreal, and rates are from $7.50 to $10 a half hour. In addition, the winner of the contest will receive $100, and the girls who place second and third, $25 and $10.

The contest closes today at 5 p.m.

NOMINATIONS

Nominations close for the presidency and secretaryship of the women's Union and of the MWSAA on Tuesday of next week. They must be signed by 25 women undergraduates, and brought into the Women's Union office between 1 and 3 p.m. Co-eds can also nominate candidates for the presidency of the Students' Society. These latter candidates require 100 signatures in order to run in the March 3 elections, and lists must be turned in to the McGill Union.

'Anatomy v. Shorts' Battle Marks Brief Revue Outfits

By SHIRLEY

There isn't much to the costumes worn by the eighteen chorus girls in the Red and White Revue this year, but a great deal of effort goes into fitting these meagre scraps of material to the individual performers who are to wear them. Peggy Capps and her assistants cut out the unmistakably short shorts, the halters with plunging neckline, and the dummies to fit same. They also presented the girls with the rudiments of ballet skirts, and sequins to adorn their outfits.

Your fellow students, the girls in the chorus, were supposed to make these pieces of black satin and dotted Swiss marquisette fit them like French girl gloves. However, we have never held a needle except when it was unavoidable and we are far more skilled in the manipulation of our microscopes and in applying the normal distribution curve, than we are with the bobbin of a sewing machine. In fact, we haven't lifted the cover of a sewing machine since we completed elementary school.

WE came home last week, after a rehearsal of the Revue and went straight to work on our costume. Our younger sister is at that stage of adolescence where she delights in being Mother's Helper. She is Handy With The Needle, and had undertaken to adjust the outfit.

With ruler and compass applied to our spine, she secured the zipper in the side of the sailor skirt, accurate to the nearest millimetre. Next, Nancy shortened the shorts giving them an even hem of three inches above the knee, like her own Girl Guide outfit. We protested, and explained the purpose of the costume as well as we could, and, with misgivings, the hemline was raised. The zipper here presented more difficulty. Sewing it where Miss Capps intended it to go, was incompatible with our own naturally padded hips. Nancy, ever practical, sewed it in with strong twine and hoped for the best.

We tried on the halter, and Nancy stared in perplexity. The effect was weirdly asymmetrical, and compass, ruler, pinning and pleating could not rectify it. Fitting this was a problem beyond the technical skill of one whose crowning achievement to date was an embroidered flannel nightgown for the Red Cross.

"IMPORTED RECORDS Our Specialty"

By WALTER SCOTT

We do not want to be misunderstood, but we feel we must disown Thursday's "Carnival Clippings". The two of us, Walter and Scott, volunteered to write it three times a week, and for the blessed event a heading was especially made. It is an attractive one so we can't really blame the Daily for wanting to print things under it. The first time our effort appeared the byline was spelled wrong, the second it was left out entirely. Result? Yesterday's column wasn't written by us. Our readers will, of course, have noticed the change in style. Some will feel we have betrayed a trust in appearing to lead them through refreshing literary fields and byways but finally returning them to the inevitable swamp of huckstering Not so! So please Ed, let's have the names up above.

Friday's and Saturday's lectures are cancelled! Smiles once more appear on the faces of Meds and Engineers—but are they any happier than the ticket committee? They say that the train to Ste. Marguerite will carry an engine at the rear, too—merely to keep a boiler full of joy juice warm.

Seems that Happy Chandler was invited to open Friday night's show at the stadium by tossing out the first snow ball. However, even the lure of a target in the form of an effigy of Leo Durocher wasn't sufficient to entice him away from sunnier climes. What does he want—the real thing?

By the way, what happened to the igloo that was to be built in the Union as a ticket booth? No snow? Or perhaps no eskimos?

Have you seen the list of nominees for Carnival Queen? We have the inside story on this business and we happen to know that the list was not complete. Two more nomination sheets were correctly filled out and handed in. Why were these names not on the list? Is prejudice rampant in the Queen committee? So what if these were male students and well known commerce men at that? This is discrimination between the sexes!

The dog-team got through from Dawson in time and they had their nominees too. Rumours came in at the same time that the sons of Bacchus are planning to organise a game of "spin the bottle" at every event. They have some interesting ideas on the game—no women—something about a new bottle every time—whichever the bottle points to—chug-a-lug, etc., eh? What goes "inside Dawson," eh Bob Perry?

P.S.—This column is the Real McCoy!

Shylock—P. 2

courtroom. There are moments of melodrama, too, as when Shylock receives the news of Jessica's drowning on her way back to the Ghetto, at the moment that he recoils from shedding blood, because, "I am a Jew".

Not unexpectedly, Mr. Schwartz carries most of the play. His is a dominant figure, striding across the stage and using strong, but restrained, gesture and facial expression to convey his emotional message. He uses his voice admirably, both in fine nuance and in silence. Jessica, we are afraid, may be misunderstood. To our mind, Charlotte Goldstein in the role skillfully handled a difficult role. She formalizes her emotional struggle and rises to considerable heights in the wedding scene.

Antonio here is given the role of scornful gentleman, heartless to the feelings of the worthless Jew—almost Shakespeare's Shylock with the roles reversed. A very sympathetic portrayal is here given by Gustave Berger. Lorenzo is a character we frankly did not understand.

Dina Halpern's Portia, wife of Antonio in the new play, is beautifully done. His delicate combination of rich womanliness with clever scheming is one of the outstanding characterizations in the performance. The rest of the cast, with the exception of a rather weak Morro, is up to the standard of the whole production.

Mr. Schwarz's sets and lighting are excellent carriers of mood and scene.

There is a final performance to-night.

Free Cancer Clinic

Proposed by Board

The Board of Governors of McGill University has drawn up a committee, headed by Dr. John R. Fraser, for discussing the establishment of a free clinic for cancer diagnosis.

The task of the committee will be to present a plan of the organization and function of this clinic, to report on the amount and cost of equipment and space, and to suggest a possible director for the new establishment.

The proposed clinic will provide diagnosis only, while treatment of the disease will be left to the teaching hospitals. Members appointed to the committee are: Dr. Frederick Smith, Dean of the Faculty of Medicine; Dr. Dudley E. Ross, chairman of the Medical Board of the Children's Memorial Hospital;
